LAUREN HELP!

How Can I Teach My Child to Memorize Scripture?

Scripture Memorization is a GREAT spiritual discipline. Children can learn how to memorize Scripture with a few simple tips.

1. For smaller children, verses can be shortened. The key is to teach them the main point of the verse.
2. Use MUSIC! So many Bible verses are incorporated into songs (including our Vacation Bible School songs). You can find them on YouTube kids or Apple Music. Simply type the verse into the search bar and you'll get SO many choices.
3. Choose a verse and choose a prominent place in your house each week to put the verse. Offer a prize or treat for your child when they can tell you the verse without looking.
4. Each month there is a verse of the month in BQ-252, it will be posted on our social media @cstreetkids and on take home papers. If your child memorizes the verse, they'll get a special prize.
5. Find ways to incorporate your home's verse for the week/month into your daily life. For example, if it is about wisdom (like this month's verse for BQ-252) is, find ways to talk about wisdom at home. Ask your child about wise choices they made or that they saw someone else make.
6. Read the verse to your child each day (if they need help reading) or have them read it to you if they can.
